

ICCF Scholarship Program

Building Officials Association of South Carolina Scholarship

Purpose: The Building Officials Association of South Carolina award an annual scholarship to a recipient selected by the Association.

Program Administration

The International Code Council Foundation acts as home for the scholarship fund. The fund is managed by the International Code Council office of the COO.

- The administrative process and guidelines are as follows:
 - The scholarship recipient information will be provided each year to the office of the COO by the Building Officials Association of South Carolina upon selection.
 - The scholarship funds will be distributed directly to the recipient by the office of the COO on behalf of the Building Officials Association of South Carolina in accordance with current IRS regulations.
